

55, GREAT CUMBERLAND PLACE, W.1.

PADDINGTON 3392.

19th May 1920

Dear Mr. DePasolo

I see you are having an exhibition in town, it will be a work of the portrait you did of me would be of any use to you for it. You may remember it was shown in Christ Church by you shortly after being presented in 1913 -

I feel it is a pity it is to be lost in boxes and trying to find a spare moment in your busy life to do my life's portrait, and we have both Costed a lot of Country and Experiences since.

I shall be away this weekend on duty but hope to hear from you, and Mrs Crook's bank will be in town should you wish to telephone about the picture, if urgent.

Just I might remember to Mrs de Lasso.

Ever truly
yours
Edw Crook
