Dear M^r. de Lagarde.

I shall be returning by your - as I am sorry to say - my father is now so pale and ill, that we do not think he can live very long - My brother and sister are with him at the moment - I will let you know after I have seen I am there - unless I have to see before.

I will see about the bar picture at

Can have Mary's picture - it is at London Army House now. I told the house keeper you might want it. I do hope when you get the War Museum picture, you will not part with it in a hurry!!

Yours ever sincerely
