Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

I wrote you on the 3rd February asking you whether you had come to any decision about an exhibition for this year.

It is rather urgent that we should know, and you will fully appreciate the necessity of our making our arrangements well beforehand: at the same time, we have had one or two applications for exhibitions which we are holding over pending your decision.

With kind regards,
Yours sincerely,

A. P. W. Chubb
