Dear Sir,

We are in receipt of your letter enclosing cheque for £56, for which we have the pleasure to send you receipt herewith, with our best thanks.

Regarding the proposed exhibition of your works, we think that the period from the middle of June to the middle of July would be more preferable in every way to the alternative suggestion of November to December. It would synchronise happily with the many attractions of the London season, and in view of the British Empire Exhibition it would no doubt attract a great many visitors from abroad.

With reference to the refurnishing and decorating of the gallery, we think it well, if possible, to talk over this again, and to obtain an estimate of the cost.

We are, dear Sir,
Yours faithfully,

Wallis & Son
