WOLMER WOOD,

MARLOW COMMON,

MARLOW, BUCKS.

April 27th 1924

My dear friend

You have not arrived, as I have at an age when a birthday is a matter for condolence rather than congratulation, so I am sending a few lines of sincere congratulations from us both on the addition of one more to the total of your successful years — I think you said that the 28th was your birthday. May you live long and prosper exceedingly at any rate, the lapse of time does not seem to damp ~~your~~ your youthful enthusiasms and you seem to have the power to be always young — I envy you. Still I would like, as usual, to suggest that your perpetually youthful mind is encased in a body that does get older year by year and that you should take the addition of another Year to your score as a hint that you should begin to take life at a little less high pressure.

Did you see that Russell Flint was elected an A.R.A. a day or two ago? I was glad to see it as he is certainly one of the best men available. McEvoy was the other election - I do not think so much of him.

Peter wishes me to add his congratulations to ours always yours

A. H. Baldry.
