Dear Mr. de Longo

I do miss you I'm busy the 7th - because I am again going to Broadstairs on Saturday to try to do some work as I can't - keep my mind on anything in London with the war news & distractions & I do want to see you before I go. I will dress up in my "vestred" garment

- I will ask Lord C. - but - I fear he will not come on I heard that he was ill in bed at Hockwood. So I suppose he won't even come up for the opening of the House of Lords. Someday I will show you some of my drawings I used to do characters skeletons of people long ago with English families!

at 8. dinner &
specter Vampire!
