Dear Mr. de Laszlo

Dear Mr. de Laszlo

Am I a great creature! well perhaps so, but - you see it was this way, I felt, as you had been so awfully generous the best I could do would be to send the little money at-once, because people always say "was time" as a rule & do not pay their just debts.
And I wanted you to know praise

from him.

how I appreciate your goodness to me, & to show that I was grateful. Listen - If my type interests you & you should want at any time to make a picture of any subject for yourself, you know I shall be delighted to sit for you, a pendant to your weird Indian prints for your collection.
When I go to do my hair sometimes at night - & just see the face & hair coming out of black darkness in the looking glass - I do think I look odd!

& I have often thought what a pity - that queer thing could not be kept! I am entirely at your disposition.

The Doctor won't let me go to America until the spring, so all my plans are changed, & I shall have to look out for some small place to stay in My maid brought me from Paris where I had sent her for things, - a book of the photographs taken of me in some of the scenes of "Three Weeks" I think they might interest you to see, because the expressions of the face under the different emotions is so different.

I will bring them when you ask me to tea!

X Yrs very sincerely

P.S.

a letter from
