St. James's Palace,

10th Feb^y. 1925.

My dear Lord Selkirk,

I have now had an opportunity of going into the matter of Mr. Philip de Laszlo's presentation at a fete. I am therefore able to assure you that no difficulties will be raised if an application is made on His gentleman's behalf for his presentation.

There is equally to be no personal objection raised in the matter of principle on M^{rs} de Laszlo's being presented at Court. But I am bound to admit that it may be no easy matter to add her name, or indeed that of any lady, to the Court lists this year owing to the very large number of applications received already.

Unless Their Majesties hold more than the usual number of Counts, it will be impossible to include in the official lists the full number of applications that have been received.

Yours sincerely,

Zones
