Pauline Darling, I was de-ligated to get your letter, + the aid to Royal Farming trees in Spain.
I'm sending you views of the Alhambra which I'm sure you will like. I I see you went home on the 22nd + yesterday were beginning to 8 or 9 hours a day work. Ask Clare to bring you a cup of tea + a two-cent, I'm glad you've decided to keep early hours, + will go for a walk in the afternoon - I hope Sunday will be kept free of work - -

about John. He wants to go out with Newble his friend, so I've told him to stay home 3 nights, + then on Monday 4th East can drive him + his wheelbarrow etc. to the willows, where he will spend the first part of his hobs. He knows you'll be home when he comes. See now he is met at Victoria Station on the 1st -

Poor Pats is further away than ever for his birthday - I'm so glad his coming home for good now. I wrote him par-ticulars about his return before I left home -

I'm interested to hear what

You say about Parsons versus Priests. Church in some shape or form, which embodies Religion is certainly necessary for the Community but those visit also the saying of Christ when he spoke to the Jews when they began to persecute him:—

"You search the Scriptures, because you suppose that in them you will find the Life of the Ages; & it is those Scriptures that yield testimony of me; & yet you are unwilling to come to me that you may have Life"— John V-39-40- These Priests

+ Parsons good & bad, but I think to come away from these Human Communities sometimes, + with-draw to the sayings of Christ the Founder, does me good —

I don't know when we'll be able to leave Madrid - Dado has now been asked to paint all the Sit children at the Palace, besides he must paint the British Ambassador + his Daughter. He has finished Infante "Heimie" (James) the 2<sup>d</sup> boy about 19 - very dark + handsome - Today he is painting the fair girl (about 17) v. like her mother. The Queen sits in the studies & reads during the Sittings - She has been present every day! She had two audiences since I wrote to you - yesterday The Queen mother received me & today Queen Ma - The latter looked so well, & was charming!

You past <sup>two</sup> Court rooms & a fine arch large Salon, before you reached the Salon where people awaiting audience waited - Then today (I was commanded for 12.30 at the Palace) a lady in waiting showed me the small room where the Queen was, & she s<sup>d</sup> she was glad to see me, &

Sat down on a sofa, & I opposite - we chatted about 6 minutes. All are snipe delighted with Dav's quickness & the result. People seem to come into the studio & watch him, but I think he has intimated he can't have so many coming - Dads was so excited yesterday - It is suggested that the youngest son (9) sh<sup>d</sup> be painted in the same armour that relasnoy painted Don Carlo on horseback - Well, they sent to the Armouria & brought the very armour & sash & helmet; as Dads said greatly moved to me afterwards, to think that relasnoy touched & painted the very same things!

Do you think any interesting?

It's all v. wonderful & how Dads is painting History - ++ Could not finish yesterday so must end now.
Sun + blue sky today, yet was
v. dull.
I'm getting thro' 1/2 hours practising nearly every day - Our room here is dark + the hotel v. quiet + small, & ~~the~~ cuisine excellent, good bye Paulo dear son, love + Malcolm & much to yourself
Mum
