Dear Mr Jazglo.

Thanks you ever so much for your charming letter, but it is T who will be a proud man not only in having been lucky enough to find so charming a bride but to have her portrait painted by you.

My mother tells me also that you have asked her if you might paint a sketch of my father as a wedding present from yourself. I really cannot say how pleased I was when I heard it, if you do this it will be a thing that my family will treasure for ever.

I am too grateful to you.

Yours v. sincerely

Spoley.
