Dear Mr. Laszlo

You may not remember me - but we met years ago - on one occasion at the Messers Hall
when you were painting Lord Selborne.
You then noticed an old picture there of Count
Teleki and I rather think you made a copy of it.

I have just been in Hungary visiting the Boy Scouts and Girl Guides there. (And - incidentally - a splendid lot they are!).
I met there the Chief Scout, Count Teleki.

I want to ask whether you could kindly tell me whether the old time Court Tekeli is of the same family, with an antique way of spelling the name, or are there two families, Telekis & Tekelis?

I hope you will forgive me for presuming on your goodnature in this way but I should be very grateful if you could give me the information

Yours very truly

Admiral Horthy showed me your delightful & speaking portrait of him.
