Dear Mr de Laszko.

My brother and his wife left for Rome Saturday morning, and in packing away their things on Friday, found your very kind letter to my sister-in-law, enclosing the beautiful photographs which were taken of them in the occasion of your son's wedding. It appears that they were put aside with some papers of my brother, by mistake, and not opened till Friday, and my Sister-in-law asked me to write and thank you very much, and to tell you how terribly sorry she was in not having been able to acknowledge your kind letter and contents.

She would have written to you herself, but was unable, on account of the rush at the last moment.

If you and your wife are free, do come to tea ^{here} on Friday next at 4 o'clock. With kind regards, Yours very sincerely,

Alfonso Marconi
