

LOCKINGE HOUSE, WANTAGE,
BERKS.

TELEGRAPH.
ARDINGTON.

✓ Oct 22 1919

Dear Mr. Saglo ^{Wantage}

Some time ago you kindly expressed a desire to paint my portrait - I have recently procured
a portrait of myself
to the University College of Reading, with which I am much connected, & the

place in the large dining hall.
Will you be disposed to undertake this?

And will you like
to paint it in London, or here?
I am not yet going to London about the
8. Nov: for a couple of weeks, and might perhaps give you a few

sittings then -

I shall also be in London on Monday next, the 25. In one night - if you should be able to look in at 2. (ask the Gardens that afternoon. between 5 - 6 - 30 o'?

we could talk
the matter over to any of

Wantage

Stones