THE BRIDGE HOTEL,
SHAWFORD, HANTS.

Dear Daddie we are all having lunch here together at this little Hotel, just by Shawford Station. we are having a very nice time here. I am so sorry that you were not able to come down to see me. I would have liked to see you so much. We are now going out for a walk together along the river Itchen. Aunt Eva came down with Elummys, they came and had lunch at the school yesterday. I hope that you are enjoying your week end. we have just come in and we enjoyed the walk along the river very much. Elummys and Aunt Eva are packing now, while I am finishing this letter. On Friday there was a very nice lecture by Rev. Wood on the insect. he drew pictures of the different parts of the insect. I was very nice. he told us that an insect has no heart, no lungs, no brain. I do wish that you would
