My dear de Lázlo,

It was a pleasure to find your remarkable
sketch of my dear
old mother awaiting me on my return home today, and

I cannot tell you how grateful
I am to you for this invaluable
gift.

When you come
home for your exhibition I shall hope
to see where you have placed the big portrait of the old lady, amongst the brilliant array

of your recent work.
That you should have made a picture of her will be an everlasting joy to us.
I am always yours,
Walter Currier.
