

April 18. 1924.

St. George
Southsea.

Dear Mr. Karglo:

Your letter was sent on to me here, as I have been here ever since my mother & I had such a very serious that for 3 days we were terribly anxious, better she was going to pull through.
But thank God her sound heart & strong constitution triumphed & she is now well on the road to recovery - So I am returning to Scotland to night - But will be back in May & find my mother in London when she is fit to be moved there hoping to see you again soon.

With my best regards & Love as always & yours
ever yours sincerely

Alice