Dear Mr. de Laszlo,
There was no time for writing before I left, but I want to thank you for all your kindness & consideration in painting my portraits so quickly, & at times that I fear were most inconvenient.
However, I do feel the result has justified the means - I have instructed my secretary was pleased & we have thought Miss J. Harkness to send you the very small cheque for so large a picture, & she will be able to let you know about dispatching the picture safely. We have an A.D.C. leaving on the 7th Dec. & the Captain of the ship is a personal friend, so that it would be a good date to send off the picture if it were ready by then. The next date would be Jan 4. We have passed thro' a horrible storm, devastating to most of us miserable passengers & are 13 hours late; but today ^{at least}
