Dear Mr de Kasse,

The picture has arrived back safely & intact, which many thanks for Now we shall shortly have to think of packing up for good, which will be a joy in due way, but a real grief in another. One cannot spend seven years in one place & unhappy with all its activities & interests without becoming rooted, & leaving all means a very real uprooting we have just been painted by request of people here by a local painter N. Neville Lewis, but I cannot say I wish to possess them, & happily they are only destined for the Bannockburn art gallery; tho' I must say they are not at all unlike us.

This is our mid-summer,

I pity you poor Northerners with all your horrid wet & fogs, while we are swelling in light & sunshine.
With kind greetings to your wife

I am
Yours very sincerely
Alice
