Dear Mr. de Laszlo,

Thanking you ever so much for your kind letter, I wish to tell you that last night I received an answer from my wife saying she would prefer meeting you in Paris the 17th of September. She was very pleased to hear of your amiable arrangement and was very much looking forward to meet you. She can unfortunately only be in London on the 23rd of this month.

I had rung you up last night and this morning, but both times you were out, so I hasten to send you these few lines. I returned last night from a stay at Sandringham.

I do hope you will not mind me having taken such a time over answering. - I must still tell you how very pleased I was meeting you the other day, nearly like older times!

Thanking you again ever so much for your kindness, I hope it will be an revoir untill soon again.

In haste Yours very truly

George. ^R
