Dear Miss Langson

This note is to introduce to you Mr. Lázló the great portrait painter, who is so full of admiration of your things & is very anxious to find some little presents of small jade ornaments & even the ordinary mandarine necklaces .etc etc.

I am sure you won't mind showing them to anybody so appreciative.

Please tell Mr. Linn that I am writing to you instead of him as I hardly like to bother him for such small things. but I am sure he would like my friend very much, if he had a moment to spare -

Yr very sincere
Elizabeth Benson
