St. Patrick's Day. 1920.

My darling Pauli. Indeed I've neglected you lately, although you have not been far from my mind. Has Stef not shown you the letters I sent him? Well now for news.

I am at Bournemouth, staying with Aunt. Amy for 3 nights - Dad's sent me your last letter which I have open before me.

So glad to hear how well you are progressing - of course I know the work in the form

You are in, is far below ~~that~~ the standard you had at Troyed.
But I'm sure you are applying your 'brains' which you repat testified to! + with brains, application + good will, you are sure to get removals rapidly.

I left home on Saturday
+ first went to see Pat.
He is looking A. I. I saw
Dr. McD. he asked after you, + Pat + I visited Dr. Nickham.
He was v. nice, also asked after you + Stef. It came on to rain, + Dr. N. lent Pat + me an umbrella each, + we sallied forth over the fields

big from Mummary

You know so well, to the Bridge Hotel. We had a nice talk & nice tea - Pat feels much happier this term - He is playing Golf now, & I brought him 2 balls & a new golf club.

I only had about 2 hours with him, & very nice they were - Then I caught train to Farnham & drove out to The Willows - Aunt Eva & Aunt Molly

When with her - you have left the back of home - will send it to you to thank well. Much love to a big - here there - Aunt Gracie comes home today - Aunt Helen did all the work & made us so comfy.

Here it is v. nice - On Friday I go to Aunt Helen at Torquay
& on Monday I return home.

It is a nice rest being away from the bustle of London.
Aunt Helen told me of the lovely bike rides you had.
