

It must be nice for you to have 3/4 of an hour extra in bed those Saturday cold mornings!
That time now does your work begin at 2 I like to be able to think what you are both doing
when I am with you!

My dear Paul

I have just been reading your nice letter again, which he received after our return from Heath Lodge -

I have been reading part of it to John, who was v. pleased at getting your love - He asks to send his - how he has just run off to go to school -

Both the reports are very good, we are so pleased - & I'm sure Mr. Kittermaster is too - He likes his house

15/- 1/2 term
I enclose

Had he made a mistake with P.O. No. or I send it - in exchange for marks up the difference.

to do well, & I am delighted to be able with a good conscience to give you $1 'poum la minute'! Shall I keep it for you - I replying, note to Dad's, because he is giving you this also.

Do you like your Form Master? Tell me what subjects in essays you do usually?

Have you got a pair of warm gloves? Have you got a muffler?

I am going today with Mr. Puet to visit a 'prep' school for John at Seaford, where Allan is. a long journey of 2 1/2 hours! Wish you were with me - But soon we shall meet my good red man! your own Mum.
