My dearest Paul.

Your dear letter came yesterday - I enclose cheque for 6 Gus: - a tall bill !!

Well, I was indeed disappointed not to see my Rugby boys - but a visit was also due to the Batman, & I took John with me, who was highly delighted to see the school & Pat. In spite of the rain, we had a happy afternoon at the Bridge Inn - had a gorging tea - Eggs jam, cakes & clive - The Pat looks much better, & I was r-pleas'd at the piece he played for me on the Bride I'm pained by heart.

Well, Dads told me all about you both & Mr. Kittermaster. How lovely for the Ratman that he too will go to Rugby. And on 8th. a Bahama Jee! indeed -- I'm longing to see his Cap! Dads says he looks v. nice in it.

I'm busy all the time with the workmen, who can't finish their work here - I run about from one to the other & fuss myself tired -

Your room is not fixed up yet - I've got 2 new beds -

I've to send this to post - to good night Darling boys -

Hugs from V. Mum
