

Sunday, 29th May, 1921.

Patrick
John
Henry
Stephen

My dearest Pauly. Pat is writing to Dads, we are both in my sitting-room, there is a nice cool breeze coming in through the open balcony door! all the afternoon Pat John & I were on the Regents Park Lake in a boat. It was lovely & warm, we rowed about & ran into other boats & they into us - & we drew up by the side of the trees & I read out "Uncle Tom's Cabin" - he had a bottle of lemonade & eatables with us, which was our tea! So you see we had a nice time - Pat gets on well at the rowing - We went to have a look at the house in Hanover Terrace, where we lived the first year we were in London. I told the boys about you being a little man about 2 years old when we were there - & Henry & Stef. & showed them where you went out with little Nannie! For

You walks in the p[er]am! How you are all getting such 'big men' ---

I'm so glad the little Tailor has made you a good pair of trousers - I'll pay him in a few days. Yes. I had to change my plans, & hope very much it will be possible to go later to Bagnoles. I am expecting to hear from the lady there, when she can have Aunt & best + me -

It's indeed a great rest being there -- better not engage the rooms for 2^d July yet, as I don't know definitely what date I'll go to France. As soon as I know I'll write at once to fix up about coming to Rugby.

The tennis court will be begun this week, the first matter being to have part of the potting house filled up. After that things will get on a pace. I have discovered lots of tennis courts 10 minutes walk from this, where you can play next hot. as our court will hardly be ready for use there - It is grand to have these courts so near, & I'm already making arrangements for engaging a court for several days in the week

Shon
Shy
enclosed card