My dearest Pauli.

Now I must answer all your ?s - But first I must say, that you have both sent us such nice letters since your return, & I am slowly getting into the letter groove for Rugby to my two darling boys!
 Wentt crowd up our days - not the least of them the Dancinler! Such a beauty! Dean too is a great success I think, he helps Daddy a lot in the studio, which he can well do, as we do not use car every day. It just fits into the garage. Dean is not good yet at finding streets, as he is not used to London, but he is a careful driver, & he likes the car v. much - I see I have replied to his III question already!

You're sure you will find the new boots to suit at half - try to do the lifting on the shoe exercise - shall write back about our

How II. Aunt Con sails on Tuesday from Portsmouth. She is packing up & getting all in readiness for her long voyage. This evening she & I were looking at such a glorious sunset - I never saw one like it - all red & pale green! It was most remarkable - I wonder did you see it?

How I. No, the Tennis court has not been started. And we have decided it shall not be started till after the tennis club - This will be a disappointment to you both - But Dad's has too many serious responsibilities just now (especially after the big outlay for the car etc.) to go in for making the Court now - He shall have the Hard Court

Comp'd when the time comes ^{at last} - Mean time the garden progresses - They have begun the stone path - It will look lovely -

How IV. The Studio fittings are not quite finished, But there is much more furniture in it, & the curtains are up between the big & small studios, & altogether with the beautiful pictures, it looks lovely.
Today we were photographed in the studio by one of the many people who have asked to come to photo Daddy. Daddy, Aunt Con, John & myself! Pat is in bed with a chill, so can't be present. I hope they will be good -
