

Paul de Lászlo
3 Barley Row
Rugby

25. March 1922.

3, Fitzjohn's Avenue,
N.W. 3.

Hampstead 7401.
Station, Swiss Cottage.

My Pauley bag. Have just read again your nice letter - Several of the "items" contained in it have already been substantially reported to - & I hope all the remittances were right?
Aunt has got the parts & I hope they are right. You are like Daddy in not liking them thick -

Yes, I too enjoyed my last outing to Rugby so much. We must have more reminiscences in the lobs together, about our little excursions abroad!

Miss Featherstone is very nice - I appreciate your (jeu de mots!) & she is gradually getting more than a featherweight on her shoulders! You will all like her, I think, she lives in Henry's old room.
Henry came back on Thursday, but was Send you both a fare + know

Paris from you both darling
+ report
Mum.

There - not in time to come with us to the Schröders dance - Con & I went & enjoyed it.

The I had a letter from John's ^{husband} N.W. & he sent the enclosed photos for you & Stef. They are v. nice don't you think?

Today is Pat's birthday! We are having Genjine Henschel & the Miss Sandeman's to tea to enjoy the birthday cake, & by Pat's special request "relatives" - wish in both were here also.

There is good news from Dads - I hope you have written to him - Ho Ae

California Canned

He met the Duc de Guiche which he much enjoyed & lunched out with him - at a table near was Sir A. Balfour & King & Queen Emmanuel of Portugal to whom Daddy spoke later - Dads is painting Panicos Christophou of Greece. But he does not like this empty, kill-time lives there. Write to him, but I'm sure I need not rearrange of that - Tomorrow we are all motoring to the willows to spend Sunday