Dear Madam

Many thanks

for your letter & the Lyttelton portrait
which I have

passed on to the Committee.

A lady who is very looking

in a picturesque
way and has some fame. has written some from Paris and asked whether it would be best that you would paint
her. Her name is Susan Gyn the novelist. She is now a great off

and I am afraid could not manage anything
big. If you
were willing to paint her what would be the price of a picture the size of that wicked Cocotte from Paris
in the corner of
my room

He could make a
pleaded thing
of her with her
white skin. dark
eyebrows. brown
and Venetian red hair. The kiss in Paris
but comes not here
some times
