

Tuesday

Hammondswood,

Frensham,

Farnham.

Dear Mr. St. Dunstan

After receiving your last letter, my husband
wrote to Mr. McKenna, & he replied at once
to say, he had not heard of the matter before, & would do all that is necessary to hurry things through. Since then we spent a day in town, & an official sent from the Home Office saw my husband & told him the paper would be forwarded to him here, which he must Sign before a Commissioner of Patents -

It is too bad that it has not yet come,
Could you not press
it on?

How serious things
are looking all round!

Yours sincerely
A. J. de Laszlo

My husband wrote to M.

because he knows him
personally.
