Dear Madame de Longle,

Yours in my visit makes writing difficult - Please therefore excuse this scribble.

Unfortunately I had already written to the Home Office, but they will very likely refer what you letter gives the reasons -

I shall be very sorry not to see you hundred but thank you for he is now in more comfortable quarters and let us hope his visitation is kindly attended

Yours sincerely

Wendell

P.S. Do come and see us any day about 5. Most kindly telephone in morning to make sure.
