

I went on Friday to visit Mrs Luther - She was very friendly - + after listening to my request, which was, that I sent a message to the Speaker to ask if, on Sir S. Cave's return, he (the S) would ask him to reha-bilitate my husband in the eyes of the world -

She replied, when I knew you were coming I don't want to stop at civilities but to tell you what I really think + I asked my husband, is there 'anything against Mr de L. that I could tell Mrs L. in private - + he said "there is nothing proved against him"
She said this more than once - But she added Mr de L. had been injudicious in his conversation
+ the Committee thought it was
